Experience

The Collective PAC / Data Director

Since Apr 2021 - Baltimore, MD (Remote)

I lead the data department at The Collective, where I'm responsible for the organization's analytics infrastructure. In addition to building and maintaining our technical capacity, I help guide The Collective's research initiatives and electoral strategies, and manage and train a data analyst.

Montana Democratic Party / Deputy Data Director

Jun 2020 to Nov 2020 - Helena, MT

I served as point-person for the voter protection team, and designed the infrastructure and data models behind our absentee reporting and ballot chase systems. I also provided mobilization and analytic support to the field, Native vote, and digital teams.

Adaptive Biotechnologies / Data Analyst

Nov 2018 to Jun 2020 - Seattle, WA

I provided business analysis to stakeholders across the company and contributed to the company's first data mart in an effort to ease report creation and insight generation.

Nevada Democratic Party / Deputy Data Director

Aug 2018 to Nov 2018 - Las Vegas, NV

I built dashboards, wrote reports, and provided technical support for the campaign's field and voter protection programs.
